

Henry Dallal's 'Pageantry and Performance'

- a celebration of the working lives and pomp and ceremony of the Household Cavalry -

Blenheim Palace is hosting the complete collection, which has been set to music to create a spectacular thirty-minute audio-visual experience running from the 8th April through to the 1st May. This will be shown on the hour from 11.00am through to 4.00 pm and lasts approximately 30 minutes. (A small additional charge applies).

The exhibition and audio-visual show capture the magic and spirit behind the world of the Household Cavalry. Minute details such as the intricate uniforms, woven crests and gleaming jackboots create a kaleidoscope of colour and movement, hard work, pride and the harmonious relationship between horse and rider.

"Don't miss an opportunity to visit The Stables Cinema to watch this amazing production"

For further details, please contact the Blenheim Palace information line on 08700 60 20 80 or www.blenheimpalace.com